Overview of
BUG BOUNTY HUNTER

A bug bounty program, also called a vulnerability rewards program (VRP), is a crowdsourcing initiative that rewards individuals for discovering and reporting software bugs. Many software vendors and websites run bug bounty programs, paying out cash rewards to software security researchers and white hat hackers who report software vulnerabilities that have the potential to be exploited.

After the completion of Bug bounty course from RedTeam Hacker Academy, you will be aware of different web application vulnerabilities and will understand how a web application works .

At the end of this course, you will be in a position, where you can start doing bug hunting on different platforms like bugcrowd, hackerone, facebook and even google.

Feedbacks

RedTeam Hacker Academy is the best institution for learning cybersecurity and networking. Faculties are very friendly and helpful and the way of teaching is very good....study materials are very useful. It is very good institute for building a good career route in cybersecurity. We can study and practice to defend against cyberattacks and security breaches.

I will recommend RedTeam to those who are planning to build their career in cybersecurity and improve their knowledge.

Experience in RedTeam Hacker academy has been very good throughout my classes .Each & every class was interactive & informative. Management, Staff, and facilities are friendly and helpful. I will always recommend people to enroll courses here for a good future

Though I was a little hesitant to join RedTeam Hacker Academy initially, the whole team and their approach towards the subject and students stroke right through. From clearing every little doubt to giving in enough inputs to let us learn and grow, it was evident that they were invested in bringing out the best in us. Anyone be it a beginner or of any level of experience can firmly move forward in choosing the institution to excel in the respective field.

SALWA SAID MOHAMMED

Excellent experience from the institute. All tutors are having promising approaches towards the students. The passion of each student will be boosted higher and higher. As a former student I would suggest that this is a perfect place for passionate techies who are interested in the security field. They would never feel guilty.
